

A CONCERT PERFORMANCE OF THE PRIZE WINNING
OFF-BROADWAY GOSPEL MUSICAL

LOOK WHAT A WONDER

"A story. . .that needs to be told and retold to our children and to all Americans."

-Oskar Eustis, Artistic Director, Public Theater, New York City

Monday, August 12th at 7:00 P.M.

Martha's Vineyard Performing Arts Center

Free Admission

For free tickets: Email: august12tickets@aol.com

Please kindly leave name, email, and number of tickets and a reply confirmation will follow.

Age appropriate: 8 years old and up.

"I believe that Look What A Wonder will be a significant and important break-through for music in America and for all who care for an understanding of Black people and White people, our shared past and shared destiny."

—William Styron, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Nat Turner and Sophie's Choice

"A gospel Jesus Christ Superstar!"
The New York Times

A fictionalized account of Denmark Vesey Slave Conspiracy of 1822

Sculpture: "Slave in Revolt" by Karl Brodthagen, Barbados Photograph by R. Norman-Matheny. Used with the kind permission of the National Cultural Foundation, Barbados Government.

Relive the gut-wrenching choices real life Black leaders Morris Brown and Denmark Vesey had to make in their quest for true freedom in this both inspiring and heartbreaking performance.